

STAFF RESUME: EN043

---

Career Summary

Botanist with over 5 years' experience working in the consulting industry in Australia. Specializes in botany and plant ecology. Skilled in plant taxonomy and identification, with a strong team support and quality outcome focus. Experienced in mentoring and training junior staff in technical, office and field work.

Experienced in working with both public and private sector clients including the former Department of Environment and Conservation (DEC) (now known as Department of Parks and Wildlife (DPaW) and Department of Environment Regulation (DER)), Westralia Airports Corporation, BHP, and local councils. Enjoys working in multidisciplinary teams and communicates well with stakeholders from a wide range of backgrounds.

Key Areas of Expertise

- Plant identification
- Vegetation assessment
- Field botany and ecology
- Impact assessment
- Vegetation monitoring

Professional History

Ecoscope (September 2009 – February 2011)

Botanist/Taxonomist

- Site assessments capturing vegetation quality and health, potential habitat for various fauna and general site conditions
- Environmental impact surveys
- Plant identification

Mattiske Consulting (July 2005 – September 2009)

Botanist

- Field staff for various project types including mine rehabilitation monitoring, linear infrastructure disturbance surveys and vegetation health assessment and monitoring.
- Plant identification taxonomist for projects throughout Western Australia

Other employment history

Clause Vegetable Seeds (September – October 2011, 2012)

Pollination Technician

- Broccoli pollination technician tasked with the dissection of mature buds to expose the stigma and cross-pollinate selected strains for seed production.

Cardno BSD (2005, various dates)

Data collector/Driver

- Driver for traffic management data collection.

Education

- MSc in Botany, University of Melbourne, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia 2018
  - 'Calcium Oxalate Crystals in the Leaves and Flower buds of the Eucalypts.'
- BSc Environmental Botany and Soil Science, University of Western Australia, Perth, Western Australia, 2004

Training

- Victorian car drivers licence, no restrictions/conditions.
- 4WD Training